KRUGER NOW ABOARD SHIP

END OF THE MUTINY

Potemkine Given to Rus- sians by Order of King Charles.

Ship Examined By Associated Press
Man. Bloodstains Everywhere. Officers Found in Pitiable Condition as Result of Ill Treatment by Mutineers

Kustentzi, Roumania, July 9.—Admiral Kruger this afternoon boarded and took possession of the Russian battleship Kiaz Potemkine, King Charles, of Roumania having sent instructions to the commander of the Roumanian squadron that the vessel was to be delivered to the Russian authorities without the raising of any difficulties.

The torpedo boat which accompanied the Kiaz Potemkine, however, left for Odessa, without surrendering, declaring she had not mutinied, but that the Kiaz Potemkine forced her to follow. The formalities of the transfer were completed this afternoon and Admiral Kruger boarded the Kiaz Potemkine. The Associated Press representatives inspected the Kiaz Potemkine after the withdrawal of the Roumanian guard. Despite the efforts of the Roumanians to get things in ship-shape on board the battleship, all is in a state of wild disorder.

The officers' cabins are stripped of every thing of value and bloodstains are everywhere. There was sufficient ammunition on board the Kiaz Potemkine which would have enabled the mutineers to have made a desperate resistance.

It is said that during the last few days the vessel was navigated by two engineers and an officer with revolvers at their heads. All the sailors wished Matuschenko, the leader of the mutiny, who resisted for some time and wanted to blow up the ship.

Seven officers were found as prisoners aboard the Kiaz Potemkine. They are in a pitiable condition from ill treatment. They declare that Matuschenko, himself killed ten officers of the battleship. All papers and books belonging to the vessel have been destroyed.

It appears that the decision to surrender the Kiaz Potemkine was made when it was evident that no other vessel would join the mutiny. The crew of the battleship seemed to be aware of the surrender of the Georgi Pobedonostets and expected that she was also coming to Kustentzi to capitulate to Roumania. Twenty sailors from the Kiaz Potemkine applied to the Russian counsel here to be sent back to Russia.

St. Petersburg, July 9.—The government is awaiting a report from Admiral Kruger before making representations to the Roumanian government for the return of the mutineers of the Kiaz Potemkine. It was stated at the foreign office yesterday that no official information of the attitude of Roumania toward the mutineers had been reported.

BLAMED THE DAMM DOG.

Magistrate Settles Family Quarrel Over Papa's Cur.

New York, July 9.—Mr. Gibson's celebrated Damm family were on exhibition yesterday, in the Harlem police court, Magistrate Whitman appearing in the dual role of exhibitor and, by virtue of his office, pacifier. They were there, six of them, and the Damm dog, comprising a lot any vaudeville manager might well feel proud of.

The Damm are Germans. So is the dog. They live at No. 61 East 110th street. Neither Mamma Damm or the little Damm took kindly to the dog. Hermann Damm was badly bruised. He said his wife hit him with a teakettle. They had never quarrelled before. The dog was the cause of it all.

"This Damm quarrel must be settled," said the magistrate solemnly. And there was peace. Hermann vowed to reduce the dog to its level, and the family departed.

THOUSANDS VISIT BATHS.

Manhattan Opens Eight and Expects to Have Six More.

New York, July 9.—Father Knickerbocker opened eight free baths yesterday morning, and though the fact was not generally known, thousands of people took advantage of the opportunity offered.

At Corlears Slip fifteen hundred persons had visited the baths by three o'clock, and though it was "ladies' day" and the bathers were all women and children, they made a tremendous uproar.

"You see they have been waiting for the baths for a week," explained one of the attendants, "and they are naturally a little excited about it. After we get fairly started we shall be able to take care of more bathers with less confusion."

Half a dozen other baths have been arranged for in Manhattan and will be opened in the course of a few weeks. They will remain open from 5 o'clock in the morning until 9 at night, and Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays and Sunday afternoons will be "ladies' days." The men and boys will have the rest of the time.

WAR AGAINST REED SMOOT

Epworth Leaguers Adopt Resolu- tions Condemning Him.

Close Convention at Denver. Recommends Amendment to Constitution Making it Impossible for Representatives of "Treason" to sit in Congress

Denver, July 9.—The seventh annual convention of the Epworth League, which came to a close today, adopted a stringent resolution condemning Mormonism and protesting against the seating of Smoot. The resolution urges an amendment to the constitution of the United States prohibiting polygamy, the passage of laws making it impossible for representatives of such treason to hold a seat in the legislative body in the United States. The resolution also condemns the liquor traffic and endorses the Dilliver bill prohibiting the inter-state transportation of liquor.

SISTERS DROWNED IN CANAL.

Idaho Falls, July 9.—Two daughters of John Blemquist, aged 15 and 20 years, were drowned while bathing in the Idaho irrigation canal today. The belief that one of the girls, probably the smaller, fell into a hole and in an attempted rescue by the other, both were drowned.

SHOTS FIRED IN RACE RIOT

WHITES FIGHT BLACKS

Guns, Razors and Clubs Used.—Two Are Shot Not Fatally.

Negro Attacked For Spoiling Boys' Baseball Game. Ends in General Riot.
Policeman Shot at, and Knocked down
But Gets Prisoner.

New York, July 9.—Two persons were shot, one probably fatally, in a fight between mobs of the whites and negroes in West Sixteenth street today.

The trouble began when Henry Hart (colored) was attacked in the street by a number of white youths who accused him with interfering with a ball game.

Hart fled and was pursued by the mob of whites hurling stones and other missiles. He reached a tenement house in which he lived and got a revolver, while the pursuers made efforts to break into the building.

Having armed himself, Hart ran down stairs and began firing into the crowd, one of his shots striking James Hunter in the side. At this point a policeman, John Loye, ran into the hall and arrested Hart after the latter had fired at him twice.

As Loye brought his prisoner out, a swarm of negroes, armed with pistols, razors and other weapons, poured out of a tenement house bent on fight. The policeman's helmet was smashed and he was knocked down and kicked, but kept a firm hold on the prisoner and finally succeeded in getting his back against a wall, where he stood off his assailants.

By this time the whites were reinforced to the number of several hundred and the negroes broke and fled in every direction. A shot fired from the negro tenement struck Mrs. Mary Donoue, who was attempting to lead a child out of the tenement, in the head, inflicting a probably fatal wound.

The police broke into the house and arrested Albert Middleton, supposed to have fired the shot, and five other negroes.

In spite of the presence of a large body of police reserves, desultory fighting between whites and blacks continued. A sudden downpour of rain scattered the combatants.

The Zealandia brought out 83 passengers and over $1,300,000 in gold.

Suggestion to Participate in Peace Conference Not Favored.

Washington, July 9.—The request of China that she be allowed to participate in the peace conference because she is vitally interested in the proceedings has been received by President Roosevelt, but will probably be refused.

While Russia is inclined to accede,

Japan will not consent. Japan has already made public assurance that Manchuria will be returned to China and regards herself as fully capable of executing the promise without the assistance of China.

BURGLAR LIKED BOUDOIR.

Disrobed and Went to Sleep on Soft Couch.

Stamford, Conn., July 9.—According to his statement to the police, Marion Terrell, colored, described as a tramp was moved by motives similar to those which possessed the Astor tramp, when he forced an entrance to the home of Thomas K. Milliken, of Henry street, a wealthy manufacturer of linens in New York.

Mr. Milliken and family are making a tour of Europe. The place is in charge of a caretaker. Terrell explored the house and finally reached Mrs. Mulliken's boudoir. It's magnificence made him sleepy, he told the police. He disrobed and went to sleep on the downy, canopied couch. He awoke greatly refreshed.

Next night he returned and was proceeding to take another siesta when a special officer, watching for him, appeared. Terrell fled, but was recognized and afterwards captured by Policeman Heffernan.

The tramp escaped from police headquarters by leaping from a window 30 feet from the ground, but was recaptured at Sound Beach. Then he made a confession. He had stolen no article of value, but was charged with statutory burglary, and was bound over to the superior court for trial.

Supposed to Have Been Killed By German Who is Dead. Back of Head Was Smashed In, Body Hacked and Bones Were Broken.

Philadelphia, July 9.—With the back of her head crushed in, and mutilated from head to feet and several bones broken, the body of a woman known as "Annie" was found today buried in the cellar of a house in the Northwestern part of the city, formerly the home of Charles Blum, a German, who died in a hospital here May 16.

After an investigation the police came to the conclusion that Blum killed the woman, who was his housekeeper, during a quarrel and that in a frenzy to hide his crime, he hacked the body with a hatchet and buried it. Quicklime consumed only a small portion of the body.

BIG FOUR FAST MAIL LEAVES RAILS,

Green Castle, Ind., July 9.—While running at a rate of sixty miles an hour this evening the East bound New York fast mail train of the Big Four railway collided with a West bound freight at Okalla. The engine and one mail car and the combination car left the track and ran for fifty feet into a corn field.

Wheeling, W. Va., July 9.—Telephone messages early this morning from Clarksburg, tell of a battle between excursionists from Clarksburg on a Baltimore & Ohio train and cowboys, the members of a wild west show.

In addition, an agreement, it is said, has been made between Scott and the passenger department of the railway,

CAPTURE OF SAKHALIN CONSIDERED IMPORTANT

Officials and Newspapers in St. Petersburg Comment.

St. Petersburg, July 9.—With the Japanese flag hoisted for the first time on Russian soil after eighteen months of war, the importance of the landing on Island Sakhalin is generally admitted in both newspaper comment and in government circles. The complete occupation of the island is regarded as a foregone conclusion.

The Nove Vremya voices the general sentiment that in holding the control of Sakhalin, puts a powerful lever in the possession of the Japanese diplomacy, which is finally something tangible, in its hands to throw upon the scales with the sword in the coming conference.

EARNST BROSS HERE.

Former Managing Editor of the Oregonian Drops Into the City.

Earnest C. Bross, managing editor of the Indianapolis Star and formerly filling a similar position with the Portland Oregonian, accompanied by Mrs. Bross, arrived on the late train yesterday and registered at the Occident. Mr. Bross had retired when his name was discovered on the register, and it is difficult to imagine what he is doing here, unless, as was stated in the Portland papers some time ago, he is going to enjoy a few months of salt air and sea breezes.

Mr. Bross is a man who enjoys an enviable position among the newspaper fraternity; he is considered one of the brightest editorial writers in the country. He will probably leave for the coast this morning.

Dr. Henderson Gets Post.

Dr. H. L. Henderson figured in the one contest accompanying the electing of officers by the Redmen at the great council of Oregon, in Portland Saturday. The fight was over the selection of the position of representative to the great council of the United States, George M. Orton, of Portland, being Dr. Henderson's opponent. Dr. Henderson won the two-year term, and Mr. Orton the term for one year. Dr. Henderson was elected great prophet.

by which the company is to forfeit fifty cents the minute for every minute lost after the guaranteed time is up, to the sum of five thousand dollars.

On the other hand Scott will pay the Santa Fe $30 the minute for every minute the company beats the guaranteed time to the sum of five hundred dollars. Scott's intention, if he succeeds in lowering the record between Los Angeles and Chicago, is to charter a train when he reaches the latter city and make a try for the record between Chicago and New York.
